

WORKSHOP
APRIL 14 & 15, 2012

Carol Simmons presents:

Intricate Kaleidoscope Cane Veneers

In her resume Carol says that she is captivated by color and finds rich combinations intoxicating. She enjoys challenging herself to work in new color combinations, especially those outside of her comfort zone. Carol has been teaching polymer clay for over 15 years. She says that teaching gives her even more satisfaction than making art. She is passionate about introducing others to polymer clay and helping them advance their artistry in this extraordinary medium.

She is Past President, National Polymer Clay Guild, Co-founder, Past President and member, Rocky Mountain Polymer Clay Guild, is a member of numerous other associations.

Her work appears in many publications including "Step by Step Beads", "Bead Dreams", "Bead and Button Magazine", "Polymer Clay Color Inspirations", "The Art of Polymer Clay: Millefiori Techniques", "The Art of Polymer Clay: Creative Surface Effects", "Polymer Clay: Creative Traditions", "Adapting Quilt Patterns to Polymer Clay", "Celebrations with Polymer Clay", "Create a Polymer Clay Impression", "Foundations in Polymer Clay Design". For more details go to: <http://clsdesigns.wordpress.com/about/>

Her work is included in the permanent holdings of the Racine Art Museum, Racine, WI.

We are happy to welcome Carol to teach this week-end!
