

JANA HONNEROVA

DALLAS MARCH 18-19, 2017

“Just a normal girl”, that’s how Czech polymer clay artist, Jana Honnerova, describes herself. A “normal girl” with a Master’s Degree in genetic biology. A “normal girl” who started skateboarding at age 15 and in 2006 was Czech national champion and fourth in the world! In 2010 polymer clay discovered her, and life totally changed. A husband and two babies have enriched her “normal” life. Jana has developed a totally original and unique way to add graphic geometric designs to the surface of polymer clay. She has taught many workshops in her native Czech Republic and in other European countries. In March 2017, she will teach her first Workshop in the U.S.A. in Dallas, Texas!

Jana’s “Organic Technique”

You will learn how to make a flowing, organic design similar to the pendant pictured. In addition, Jana will demonstrate her “rounding technique”—those are not sea shells.
