

NTPCG 2010 Bottles of Hope Challenge

Entry Form

Rules & Guidelines for Submission:

Requirements: Bottle 4 inches tall or smaller; Each bottle must be covered in polymer clay (any brand) and must include a polymer clay topper.

Categories: 1) By the Sea 2) Wings 3) Mother Earth/Nature & 4) Best of Show

Categories 1-3 will each be awarded $50 in cash, and Best of Show will be awarded $100 cash. Winners have the option of donating their cash award to the cancer charity of their choice.

All entries must be received by April 18, 2010. Please send entries to:

Laura Griffin
NTPCG Bottles of Hope Chair
6359 Oriole Dr.
Dallas, TX 75209

Contest entries will be voted upon anonymously by the North Texas Polymer Clay Guild. Submitted bottles will be donated to Gilda's Club of Dallas to be distributed during remembrance and survivor celebrations throughout the coming year.

Winners will be contacted via e-mail and announced on our website on or around May 24, 2010.

NTPCG "BOTTLES OF HOPE" 2009 CHALLENGE SUBMISSION FORM

You may submit as many bottles as you like, however, only one award will be allowed per person.

Name _____

Street Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Daytime Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Category: _____

Title of Entry _____

Description/Inspiration (anything you'd like to share about how or why you created your bottle):

For multiple entries, please attach a separate sheet.

I hereby acknowledge that my submission(s) will not be returned to me, but will be donated to Gilda's Club of Dallas. I hereby grant the North Texas Polymer Clay Guild permission to display or reproduce a likeness of my name, photo, submission statement, bottle, or combination of the aforementioned, for possible use in print or internet media, and may be shared with other Bottles of Hope programs at any time in the future.

Signature: _____ Date _____

For further information on the NTPCG 2009 BOH Challenge, please contact:

Laura Griffin, Event Coordinator
E-mail: laura_griffin@yahoo.com
<http://www.ntpcg.org/boh.html>

