

Sagacious Sumptuous Intentional Color

LINDLY HAUNANI

DALLAS, TEXAS

OCTOBER 20-21, 2018

Lindly Haunani's passion for food and cooking provide a basis for her inspiration when making things. This is often expressed via the color, construction techniques and form in her designs. She began teaching polymer in 1990 and has presented over 100 workshops. Her polymer work appears in sixteen books. In addition to many private collections her work is part of the permanent collections of the Racine Museum of Art, The Museum of Fine Arts Boston, The Newark Museum of Art, The Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Mienghe International Museum in San Diego. She has a BFA in Printmaking from Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh, PA.

Join Lindly Haunani, a nationally recognized colorist for a fun and illuminating two - day workshop. While you may know just what colors you like, and exactly how to mix them, using them in harmonious combinations can be challenging. Learn how to add impact to your polymer clay work with increased color confidence and agility.
